LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

REVELATION 21:1-5a

to make all things new

Then I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth. The former heaven and the former earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. I also saw the holy city, a new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Behold, God's dwelling is with the human race. He will dwell with them and they will be his people and God himself will always be with them as their God. He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there shall be no more death or mourning, wailing or pain, for the old order has passed away." The one who sat on the throne said, "Behold, I make all things new."

The word of the Lord.

SECOND READING

EPHESIANS 4:11-16

building up the Body of Christ

Brothers and sisters;

Christ gave some as apostles, others as prophets, others as evangelists, others as pastors and teachers, to equip the holy ones for the work of ministry, for building up the Body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of faith and knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the extent of the full stature of Christ, so that we may no longer be infants, tossed by waves and swept along by every wind of teaching arising from human trickery, from their cunning in the interests of deceitful scheming. Rather, living the truth in love, we should grow in every way into him who is the head, Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, with the proper functioning of each part, brings about the Body's growth and builds itself up in love.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL
ACCLAMATION

James Chepponis

GOSPEL

JOHN 17:20-26

that we all may be one

Jesus raised his eyes to heaven and said:

“I pray not only for my disciples, but also for those who will believe in me through their word, so that they may all be one, as you, Father, are in me and I in you, that they also may be in us, that the the world may believe that you sent me. And I have given them the glory you gave me, so that they may be one, as we are one, I in them and you in me, that they may be brought to perfection as one, that the world may know that you sent me, and that you loved them even as you loved me. Father, they are your gift to me. I wish that where I am they also may be with me, that they may see my glory that you gave me, because you loved me before the foundation of the world. Righteous Father, the world also does not know you, but I know you, and they know that you sent me. I make known to them your name and I will make it known, that the love with which you loved me may be in them and I in them.

The Gospel of the Lord.

SOLI DEO GLORIA!

Leo Nestor

Soli Deo gloria!
To God alone be glory!

How can I repay the Lord for his goodnes to me?
The cup of salvation I will raise; I will call on the Lord's name.

Soli Deo gloria!
To God alone be glory!

Is not the cup of blessing that we bless a communion with the blood of Christ?
Is not the bread that we break a communion with the body of Christ?

Soli Deo gloria!
To God alone be glory!

A thanksgiving sacrifice I make; I will call on the Lord's name.
My vows to the Lord I will fulfill before all his people.

Soli Deo gloria!
To God alone be glory!

Because the loaf of bread is one, we, though many, are one body,
for we all partake of the one loaf.
Therefore whatever you do, do for the glory of God.

Soli Deo gloria!
To God alone be glory!

To you will I offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving, not seeking my own benefit but that of the many so that they may be saved.

Soli Deo gloria!
To God alone be glory!

To this I have been called for the glory of God...
in the courts of the house of the Lord, in your midst, O Jerusalem.

Soli Deo gloria!
To God alone be glory!

RECESSIONAL

“O GOD, OUR HELP IN AGES PAST”

WILLIAM CROFT

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.

Under the shadow of your throne
Your saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is your arm alone,
And our defense is sure.

Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting you are God,
To endless years the same.

A thousand ages in your sight
Are like an evening gone,
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.

Time like an ever-rolling stream,
Soon bears us all away;
We fly forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the op'ning day.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Still be our guard while troubles last,
And our eternal home.
