Dear Friends:

Welcome to this year's Call to Holiness Conference. I trust that through the experience of gathering with other committed Catholics for prayer, dialogue, and study, you will grow closer to the Lord and come to deeper reverence for the mystery of His presence in the Church.

In particular, it is my hope that you will recognize ways you are indeed being "called to holiness" in and through your particular vocation in life.

Blessings on all who will share in this gathering. May Mary, Queen of the Rosary, be your inspiration and guide.

Sincerely yours in the Lord,

†Adam Cardinal Maida
Archbishop of Detroit
