

Archdiocese of Detroit

Prayers for the deceased, family and caregivers

Cardinal Maida Reacts to Death of Terri Schiavo

“This is a sad end to a tragic situation. In a special way this Easter season, we turn to the Lord, the author of life, and pray for the peaceful repose of the soul of Terri Schiavo. And we also hold in our prayers all those involved, most especially the family members and caregivers.”

Statement by Adam Cardinal Maida
Archbishop of Detroit
March 31, 2005