Saturday at Ford Field Catholic Championship Football Games Played at Prep Bowl

One of metro Detroit's oldest high school sports traditions, the Prep Bowl, celebrated its 33rd anniversary on Saturday, October 22, at Ford Field. The Catholic High School League (CHSL) A-B and C-D Championship Games were played, as well as a wildcard game. In addition, the Catholic Youth Organization (CYO) championship elementary school game and several CYO exhibition games were scheduled.

Besides the CHSL and CYO football games, the Prep Bowl included scholastic All Catholic Teams, high school exhibits and information, pom pon and cheerleading routines, presentation of homecoming queens, Catholic high school football honor teams, CYO fall sports trophy winners and scholar athletes, five marching bands, and a ceremony honoring Catholic school educators with increments of five years or more of service in Catholic schools.

Some 25,000 fans were in attendance at this year's Prep Bowl. For additional information, go to www.CHSL.com.

The lineup of championship matches and scores were as follows:

CYO Championship: Warren St. Anne 31, Plymouth Our Lady of Good Counsel 22

CHSL Wildcard: Detroit Catholic Central 24, Dearborn Divine Child 19

CHSL C-D Championship: Waterford O. L. Lakes 24, Madison Heights Bishop Foley 21

CHSL A-B Championship: Orchard Lake St. Mary's 20, Birmingham Brother Rice 7
